

Financial Services

- Social Security Disability Benefits are available through the U.S. Government for those who have a severe or profound hearing loss. An application is required. The amount you are eligible to receive through Social Security is based upon the earnings of the applicant, the applicant's spouse, and/or the applicant's parents. ssa.gov/disabilityssi
- Veterans and Active-Duty Military Service Members may be eligible for assistance with hearing aids and other hearing loss related services. military.com/benefits/veterans-health-care